

Media Release

Zurich, 7 April 2011

Ivan Nash Vila as new CFO of upc cablecom

Management changes at upc cablecom: Guido Winkelman is relinquishing his post as Chief Financial Officer as of 1 June 2011 to take up new challenges in Liberty Global's European group headquarters. The new upc cablecom CFO will be Ivan Nash Vila. He joins Switzerland's largest cable network operator as a highly qualified manager with an intimate knowledge of the company and the telecommunications industry.

Ivan Nash Vila has a long-standing international track record in the financial sector. He worked for companies in the Swiss telecommunication and IT industry before joining what was then cablecom in 2003, his last post being that of Head of Corporate Finance & Investor Relations. Further posts followed within Liberty Global, the parent company of upc cablecom, the most recent being that of Director Mergers and Acquisitions in the group's strategy division in London. Ivan Nash Vila is 38 years old, he has a Swiss wife and is of Spanish/American nationality.

After five years as Chief Financial Officer at upc cablecom, the Dutchman Guido Winkelman is transferring to the group's European headquarters in Amsterdam where he will take up the post of Vice President, Acquisition and Business Integration for the various business units in Europe.

Eric Tveter, CEO upc cablecom, on the management changes: "Guido Winkelman has successfully guided our company as CFO for the past five years. He has my sincere thanks for his work and very best wishes for his future career. By succeeding in engaging Ivan Nash Vila as our new CFO, we have gained someone with an in-depth knowledge of our company and the Swiss telecommunications industry. I congratulate Ivan on his new post and look forward to working with him."
