Zurich, 13 December 2011

Andreas Werz becomes media spokesman at upc cablecom

Since 1 December 2011 Andreas Werz (46) has been providing reinforcement to the corporate communications team at upc cablecom. He joined the largest cable network operator in Switzerland from the energy company Alpiq. From 2009 he was head of media and external communication at Alpiq. Before that he worked for just under ten years in internal and external communications at the world football association FIFA. So Andreas Werz and Marc Maurer now make up the team of media spokesmen at upc cablecom.

Thanks to his many years working for Alpiq and FIFA, Andreas Werz has had extensive experience in media work. This experience means that he completes the external communication team and will represent the company to the public. In his previous positions Werz worked as an editor and freelance correspondent for various Swiss and German daily and weekly newspapers. The upc cablecom corporate communications team is headed by Roland Bischofberger.
